

Padgett Law Group Hires New Executive Director of Operations

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

[May 7, 2018] Atlanta, GA — Padgett Law Group (PLG) is proud to announce and welcome Brandy M. Green to the firm. Brandy will take over the Executive Director of Operations role recently vacated by Robyn S. Padgett. Brandy will report directly to General Counsel/Vice-President, Laura Conrad, with a dotted line to Robyn Padgett. Effective immediately, Robyn will assume the new role of Chief Development Officer. In order to ensure a smooth transition, Brandy will be working closely with Robyn over the next few months.

Brandy comes to PLG as a 20+ year veteran of the creditor rights' industry and brings to the firm her invaluable knowledge and experience. Brandy holds a degree from Darton College and is an American Bar Association (ABA) certified paralegal. In her new role, Brandy will be responsible for implementing and executing the firm's business plans according to its business model and ensuring that all appropriate actions are taken to expedite the firm's portfolio of business. Her primary focus will be based on client Service Level Agreements and performance requirements, as well as oversight and management of the firm's high volume multi-state creditors rights' practice, including but not limited to, foreclosure process and operations, bankruptcy process, and retail & REO closing transactions.

Brandy's proven track record as a results-driven senior level operations leader, skilled in staff development and metrics-based management and process improvement, positions her for success with PLG. Brandy begins her role on Monday, May 7th and will visit various PLG office over the coming months.
